SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

In 2016 Canberra Grammar School partnered with the Podmore Trust to support the placement of our first Indigenous Scholar. In late 2018 administration of the Podmore Trust was handed over to the Canberra Grammar School Foundation – the philanthropic branch of the School – to continue its work in providing equitable opportunities to Indigenous students.

With the Podmore Trust established, it allowed the shared values, common interests and synergies of the two Foundations to work in parallel with the CGS Indigenous Scholars Programme. The CGS Foundation will continue the spirit of Podmore by returning opportunity to Indigenous children in the Canberra region by providing educational scholarships and access to leadership and sporting opportunities.

Two of the Indigenous Scholarships awarded are directly funded by the CGS Podmore Trust, and are named the 'CGS Podmore Warawitcha Scholarship' and the 'CGS Podmore Brigadier Damian Roche Memorial Scholarship'. You can read more about the CGS Podmore Trust (previously Podmore Foundation) at CGSFUNDATION.ORG.AU/PODMORE-FOUNDATION

The CGS Foundation facilitates the endowment of educational scholarships and access to leadership and sporting opportunities at our Red Hill campus for Indigenous students by subsidising academic and boarding fees for the full period of enrolment.

All selected scholarship recipients must be eligible for a full or part ABSTUDY allowance. Payment of the allowance is directed to the School to further cover tuition and boarding fees, with the remainder to be financed by a parental contribution. This financial obligation is a requirement of the programme as a demonstration of commitment to and support of the student's education at CGS.

The amount of the parental financial contribution is set by crosschecking the tax return from the previous year against the Scale of Parental Financial Contribution Schedule. The tax return must be provided to the School by 1 December before the start of the academic year.

Additional costs may be incurred by the parents for items such as social activities, musical instrument hire, and non-compulsory events and trips. A statement of account is sent each term via email detailing any fees and charges owing. A direct debit is required to be established and maintained with the School to cover these costs. Other personal costs, such as spending money, toiletries, hair-cuts, and phone bills, are to be covered by the family.

Applications for ABSTUDY are made through Services Australia and forms can be accessed at: SERVICESAUSTRALIA.GOV.AU/ABSTUDY

Administration of payment management is required to be authorised to the School when the Scholar starts at CGS.
